

Just some of Mixed Company's major projects

Cobblestone Theatre Project – In 1990, Mixed Company launched the first Cobblestone Theatre Project, offering a forum and a voice for people who have experienced homelessness and street life.

Project ACT – Project ACT is a 2-year, province-wide initiative focused on engaging youth to address the question of youth lifestyle choices - healthy eating, physical activity and substance abuse

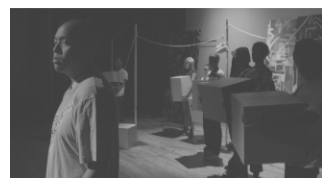

Individuals Making Positive Social Change Together (I.M.P.A.C.T.) - Mixed Company's Youth Advisory Committee provides youth with a creative outlet to initiate social change.

Breaking the Cycle of Violence Series – Since 1983, Mixed Company has engaged, educated and empowered more than 350,000 elementary & secondary school students throughout Ontario.

Sexual Assault Prevent Project – Mixed Company's production of Mixed Messages addresses the issue of sexual assault on school campuses and asks students to discuss, "How far is too far?"

DISS, From the Streets to the Stage Project – Created in collaboration with youth who have experienced violence, the plot covers snitching, family relationships, friendship, theft, gun violence and many other issues that affect young people living with gang presence in their communities.

Mixed Company Theatre creates innovative, interactive drama as a tool for positive change.

Nationally recognized for our work in schools, the community and the workplace, we use Forum Theatre and other collaborative methods to engage, educate and empower audiences to create solutions to challenging issues.
